6 April, 13 July, 28 September
A six-night holiday, Sunday to Saturday

Your week will include some or all of the following:

- ❖ An amazing opportunity to try your hand at mosaics, sculpting and water colour painting, all within a week
- ❖ Complete novices will find this a rewarding and fascinating week
- ❖ More experienced? Don't worry, each day can be planned to suit your needs
- ❖ Visit the sculpture studio of renowned sculptor Colin Underhay and spend 1.5 days following his easy tuition to make a hare (pictured above) that you can take home, enjoy and share with your family
- ❖ Spend a day or more working with Sarah Berry in her mosaic workshop as you craft a pot stand holder or mirror with your choice of different mosaics
- ❖ Work alongside Marcus Oliver, a skilled water colour painter as he helps you to create a painting of the local landscape surrounding Le Moulin
- ❖ Enjoy a visit to a medieval village where you will savour savoury galettes made in a very French way
- ❖ Vegans and vegetarians welcome

“The gangs 15th trip (four 60+ ladies who go away every year) was a huge success. Sarah and Vince were the friendliest of hosts – four course dinners, fabulous breakfasts, lots of wine, gorgeous friendly dogs and fantastic hare making and mosaic days. A truly fabulous craft week whether you are creative or not. Thank you so, so, much we had a great time”
